Directions

Print the bookmarks on card stock and cut them out. Fill in the space for the name and reading goal on each bookmark. Laminate the bookmarks for more durability if desired.

Choose your reading challenge. Each book on the bookmark could represent a book that has been read or a set amount of reading time (such as fifteen minutes or thirty minutes).

Punch a hole through each book on the bookmark as the challenge is completed. For example, if you choose to have each book represent fifteen minutes of reading time and the student reads for thirty minutes, punch a hole through two books on the bookmark.

A prize could be offered when all ten books have a hole punched through them.
